

ServiceMaster Elite Services

WHEN YOUR FACILITY HAS SPECIAL CLEANING NEEDS, CHOOSE A SPECIAL SERVICE PROVIDER

At ServiceMaster Elite Services, we understand that your facility doesn't just make a statement to your staff, it is your statement to customers, guests and the outside world. Our highly trained, thoroughly screened cleaning crews are dedicated to helping you make that statement.

When we partner with you, we clean your facility exactly the way you like, day-in and day-out. Using the latest technology, equipment and methods, we do the job right the first time!

Constant availability and communication ensures we know your business' unique cleaning needs and that we are continuing to deliver exceptional service.

Serving the following industries: healthcare, education, government, hospitality, property management, manufacturing and everything in between, our experience familiarizes us with compliance and security-related issues, but more importantly, helps us develop and utilize the most effective and advanced methods and materials for your business environment. Once we know your needs, we can tailor a plan specific to you. And your budget.

We use our expertise and resources to turn the completion of ordinary tasks into extraordinary service. Our crews are backed by national resources. Advanced training, equipment and methods keep your building looking its best.

ServiceMaster Elite Services is committed to contaminant-free cleaning and seeks to minimize any negative environmental or health impact by using independently tested, audited and certified cleaning products.
